TO-DAY'S ADVERTISEMENTS.

A SABDATH day Well spont Brings a week Of good content,

THE BULLETIN is prepared to do full justice to holiday advertisers

Winchester and Lexington will be connected by telephone in a few days.

Ninety-eight different styles of new neckwear open to-day at Hunt & Doyle's.

Ananias had a very bad reputation but it can be said to his credit that he never sent telegrams from Flemingsburg.

TWENTY-SEVEN hogs were counted this morning on one square. Other parts of the city, doubtless, could show up as well. REMEMBER the matinee Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Persons living in the ter. country will have a fine opportunity, by coming to the city, of witnessing this great play. Ir matches are sold in this city at one half the former price, the public would be interested to know what enterprising merchant is doing it. He is certainly an exception to the general rule.

Cure young women now improvise their bustles out of gossamer cloaks. In case they are caught out in the rain it takes but a minute to step into a friendly dry goods store and when they appear they wear gossamers, but the bustles are gone.

THE following marriage licenses have been issued in Brown county, Ohio, since our last report:

Wm. H. Hawkins and Kate Shaw.
F. W. Slack and R. Amanda Day.
George W. Admunson and Susan C. Dalton.
Alvers Botts and Lucy Q. Lord.
Samuel Edenfield and Vina West.
F. J. Fossit and Flora B. Cummins.
Winfield M. Reed and Lucinda Bradford.
Clifford Laypole and Ella Ross.
Thomas Barmby and Sarah Grant.

THE man who carries his dinner, goes to work at seven in the morning and quits at six in the evening, is not glad to see shadows begin to lengthen, for he is reminded that in a short time, excepting on Sunday, he will eat breakfast and sup by lamp light, and will not get a daylight view of his family until the shadows begin to wane next spring.

THE examining trial of Marshal Boston, colored, charged with committing a rape upon the person of Mrs. Lucy Connors, colored, took place before Magistrates M. F. Marsh and John L. Grant, drink, such as tea, broma, sugar, water yesterday. The evidence produced was of a character to justify his being held for further trial and it was accordingly done. His bond was fixed at $500, and as he was unable to give the required security he was committed to jail.

THE following property belonging to Mr. Robert Perrine, was sold, on Friday, by Mr. George C. Goggin, auctioneer: 10 shoats... Bay mare.. Bay colt... Mule colt. Cow and calf. coung cow ... 6 two year old steers... 2 two year old steers... Red helfer.... fat cattle calves (steers) .

THE BULLETIN of Thursday contains another article arraigning the city council for cowardice in submitting the bog question to the qualified voters of the city. Whilst as thoroughly opposed as is our neighbor to his porkship perambulating our streets, we would ask the direct question, whether it favors his banishment by star chamber proceedings in which the rights of the majority are to be suppressed?—Republican.

But the rights of the majority will not be suppressed for nine men out of every ten in the city are in favor of banishing the hog, if they dared to speak their true sentiments. But many of them are afraid of the man who owns a hog and there is but little hope of getting the real sense of the people on the subject, until they arrive at an appreciation of their pitiable situation, and gather courage enough to defy the hog power. Knowing that a large majority of the inhabitants of the town are disgusted with the filth and depredations of this protected animal we certainly do favor its bamshment from the town by the council, who are the representatives of the people, and whose duty it is to abate this nuisance which is the most annoying that we are called on to endure. It was this same fear of the hog owner, that induced the board to submit the question to the vote of the citizens, and they must pardon us when we say that it was cowardly, for letters will please say advertised. that is the truth.

Rev. A. N. Gilbert will preach at the Christian Church to-morrow morning at the usual hour. At night he will give the fourth lecture on "The Harmony Between Science and Revelation," the special theme being "The Origin of Animal Life." In this lecture it will be shown that there is a most remarkable correspondence between the order in which Moses presents the great division.

Two Meals a Day.

-the summit of the pyramid reached.

An exchange says: If any man or woman of forty-five or over not engaged in hard manual labor, especially the studious, sedentary and indoor livers, would take but two meals a day for one month, the second not later than three in the afternoon, and nothing absolutely afterwards, except it might be in some cases an orange or a lemon, or cup of warm or ice cream, there would be such a change for the better in the way of sound sleep, a feeling of refreshment, a feeling on waking of having rested, an appetite for breakfast, a buoyancy of disposition during the day, with geniality of temper and manner that few, except the animal and glutton, would be willing to go back to the fleshpots of Egypt. Ben Wade, one of the political lions of the west, has taken but two meals a day for twenty years, and if all sedentary persons, those who are indoors a part of the time, would, after the age of forty-three, observe the same inflexible rule, there can be no doubt, other things being equal, that long years of happy exemption from the ordinary ills of life would be the result. The reason is that the stomach would be able to perform its part more
